~ OUR STORY ~

Felipe and Ben met on a tube in 2007 and their bromance over Mexican food began. Felipe was better at cooking it than Ben (but Ben was OK and he made a cracking margarita!) so they opened a restaurant. They use salt mined in Puebla by Felipe's mum, Fortunata, for the margaritas and avocado leaves farmed by his brother to season the black beans. They named the restaurant after Benito Juarez. He was the first indigenous president of Mexico, a visionary, a truly inspirational leader and, legend has it, the wearer of the occasional extravagant hat. It is from this wonderful man, and his quirky taste in head gear, that Benito's Hat got its name.
